33,000 MEN QUIT WORK IN CHICAGO

Packing Company's Employees Walk Out and Stockyards are Virtually Tied Up.

White Employees Object to 5,000 Negro Workmen Returning to Former Jobs.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, August 8. — A general strike of 33,000 employees of the packing plants at the stockyards began at 10 o'clock this morning.

The action followed the decision of the stockyards labor council last night to call a general strike unless the state troops and police guards were immediately withdrawn from the plant.

The strike was precipitated by the return of 5,000 negroes to work yesterday. The dispute, according to labor leaders, is over the employment of non-union negroes rather than race hatred.

Many of the negroes, it is said, have refused to join the unions.

When the white employees reported for work today, they demanded that the state troops and police be withdrawn immediately. Both the city authorities and the packers refused to accede to this demand. The men walked out quietly.

MEX. OUTRAGES TO BE PROBED BY SENATORS

Foreign Relations Committee to Make Recommendations Ending Outrages.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, August 8. — Without opposition or debate the Senate today adopted a resolution authorizing the Foreign Relations Committee to make a sweeping investigation of outrages against Americans and American property in Mexico and "to report what, if any means, should be taken to prevent such outrages."

JOINT SESSION IS AGREED UPON TO HEAR WILSON

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, August 8. — The House today adopted a resolution for a joint session of Congress at four o'clock this afternoon to hear President Wilson's recommendations as to the means of reduction of the high cost of living.

A point of no quorum had been made by Representative Blanton, democrat, of Texas, but a roll call developed that a quorum was in attendance.

THESE AMERICANS ARE HAVING A GOOD TIME IN FRANCE

The life of the American dough-boy still in France is not so monotonous as some imagine, as this group of U. S. photo helps to prove. The picture, taken in the leave area, Anney, Haute Savoie, France, shows how every afternoon the men are treated to tea and chocolate out in the park which is located by the side of Lake Anney and at the foot of the Alps

UNION MAY ORDER SHOPMEN TO RETURN TO DUTY AT ONCE

Director General Hines will not Consider Demands Until all are Back on the Job.

RAILROAD TIE-UP MAY BE POSTPONED

High Cost and Wage Increase will be Weighed by Hines

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, August 8. — Director General Hines today awaited word from the unions that all of the striking shopmen had returned to work before undertaking to carry out President Wilson's instructions to settle the wage controversy on its merits.

The telegraph systems of the Railroad Administration was put at the disposal of the union officials, and peremptory orders that the men should go back to work went out to 500 local chairmen.

Until the men have resumed work, Railroad Administration officials said they would not discuss the procedure to be employed in adjusting the wage demands.

Mr. Hines is understood to consider that two main points are involved in the settlement:

First, how much has the cost of living increased beyond the increase in wages, and,

Second: What are the wages being paid in other industries for the same classes of work.

FORMAL REPLY TO PRESIDENT ON SATURDAY

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, August 8. — Secretary Saunders, of the Chicago Council of the Federated Shopmen's Union, announced today that the Executive Board of the organization was considering President Wilson's demand that 300,000 strikers return to work before their request for higher wages will be considered by the Federal government.

He said the executive board expects to reach a decision by five o'clock tomorrow. At that time, it is said, the union will make a formal reply to the demands of President Wilson. Meanwhile numbers of the strikers returned to work today in various parts of the country, while as many more went on strike.

More than 150 passenger trains of two eastern and one western road have been discontinued. Railroad officials predict a further curtailment unless the shopmen respond to President Wilson's appeal and return to work.

Freight traffic on nearly all lines continued to be hampered today by the walkout.

U. S. JOINS DEMAND.

London, August 8. — A dispatch from Vienna, by way of Copenhagen, to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the United States has sent an ultimatum to Rumania demanding withdrawal of the severe armistice terms presented to Hungary on pain of a cessation of shipment of food to Rumania.

FLOUR SALE PLANS MADE BY BARNES

Sale on Basis of $10 Per Barrel and Jobbers to Make Not to Exceed 75 Cents.

Retailers Confined to $1.25 Profit for 140 Pound Bags

(By Associated Press.)

New York, August 8. — Details of the United States Grain Corporation's plan to sell flour at $10 a barrel were made public here today by Wheat Director Barnes.

Under the plan, restrictions are placed on the price to be charged by wholesalers, jobbers and retailers. The flour will be sold in 140-pound sacks on a basis of $10, in the territory west of the Illinois and Indiana line, and west of the Mississippi and at $10.25 in the remainder of the country.

Jobbers and wholesalers must guarantee to resell to retailers at not more than 75 cents additional, and retailers are confined to an increase of not more than $1.25 over the wholesale price for the original packages and must not charge more than 7 cents a pound for broken packages of any size.

SAY FARMERS DEMAND HIGHER WHEAT PRICE ASK GUARANTEE REPEAL

Nebraska Solon Asks Agricultural Committee to Assist in Repeal of Price.

Declares Farmers Would Get Much Higher Price if Guarantee Price is Lifted.

Minimum Made Maximum is Declaration.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, August 8. — Repeal of the government price guarantee for wheat to enable farmers to secure higher prices was urged at a special meeting today of the Senate Agricultural Committee. Action by the committee was deferred.

Senator Norris, republican, of Nebraska, proposed repeal of the price guarantee and T. C. Atkeson, of Washington, representative of the National Grange, endorsed it.

"That is exactly what the farmers are praying for," he said.

Senator Norris, Chairman Gowna and other committeemen said the wheat price guarantee law has not been carried out.

The $2.26, they declared, was intended by Congress to be the minimum price with a higher price possible under the law of supply and demand. Instead, they said, the United States Grain Corporation has made the minimum price the maximum price for the farmers.

Mr. Atkeson said the farmer would receive an average of only $1.50 per bushel for wheat this year. He and Senator Gowna declared that had the government not fixed the wheat price the farmers would receive much more than the guarantee because of the prospective wheat shortage and world demand.

BROOKLYN CARS STILL TIED UP BY WALK-OUT

(By Associated Press.)

Extension of Food Control Act to Peace Time Urged by the President Before Congress

Suggests Stiff Penalty be Provided for Punishment of Profiteers.

"Vicious Practices" Responsible for Many Cases of High Cost.

Ratification of Peace Treaty Would Have Direct Bearing is Claim.

Cold Storage Legislature is Wanted

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, August 8. — Addressing Congress today and proposing remedies to check the high cost of living, President Wilson declared that existing laws were inadequate and that high prices were not justified by shortages of supply, present or prospective, but were created in many cases "artificially and deliberately" by "vicious practices."

The President recommended that the food control act be extended to peace time operation and that Congress exclude from interstate as well as intrastate shipment goods which did not comply with its provisions.

The President also recommended that the food law be provided with a substantial penalty for profiteering and a cold storage law be enacted, modeled after the law in New Jersey, by which a time limit be placed on cold storage.

He also recommended that all goods released from cold storage be marked with the price prevailing when they went into storage.

He further recommended that goods in interstate commerce be marked with the prices at which they left the producer.

It would serve as a useful example, the President suggested, if Congress enact legislation to control the situation in the District of Columbia, where it has unlimited authority.

Further the President recommended a federal licensing system for corporations engaged in interstate commerce which would embody regulations to insure competitive selling and "prevent unconscionable profits in the methods of marketing."

He also urged prompt passage of the law pending to control security issues.

Making an appeal for the ratification of the peace treaty to turn the country from a war basis the President said:

"There can be no peace prices so long as our whole financial and economic system is on a war basis."

"A process has set in," the President told Congress, "which is likely, unless something is done, to push

FRIENDS GATHER SORROWFULLY FOR FAREWELL RITES

In the beautiful home which bore so many evidences of her gentle presence, at four o'clock Thursday afternoon were held the funeral services of Mrs. J. Earl McLean.

Relatives and friends had gathered in great number and, with the spaciousness of the home, many were unable to gain entrance and were seated on the porches and terrace.

Only those nearest to her had realized the seriousness of Mrs. McLean's condition and the shock of her death had deeply touched the community. There were few dry eyes in the large assemblage as thoughts turned to the devoted wife and mother, the considerate daughter and sister and the unselfish friend who, enveloped in the eternal peace, slept amid a wonderful bower of flowers, the farewell expression of affection and regard.

The services were also rich in tribute and deeply comforting, in charge of Mrs. McLean's pastor, Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington, of Grace M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Frederick E. Ross, a former pastor very close to the McLean family, and Rev. T. H. Hare, of Westerville.

The services were impressively opened and closed with the hymns, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," sung by a quartet, Misses Bess Cleveland and Jessie Sunkle, Messrs. C. S. Haver and Gilbert Adams.

Following the reading of the scriptures by Rev. Cherrington and prayer by Rev. Ross, Rev. Cherrington made a short talk upon the beauties of the heavenly country and the ministering kindness in the coming of the death angel to bear from earth's pain and sadness to its eternal brightness. The minister offered much comfort in the thought of the falling asleep in earth's twilight to waken in the heavenly glory and called attention to the need of the upward vision.

Rev. Tom Hare, a life long friend of the McCoy family, had written and read the following memoir.

CORDA LOUISE MCLEAN

Corda Louise, daughter of E. A. and Martha J. McCoy, was born in Fayette County, Ohio, December 12, 1877 and was the second born of a family of six children. Her passing is the first break in the family circle. Three sisters and two brothers, together with her parents, are bereft indeed in this untimely death.

She was educated in the public schools of the county of her birth. On November 11th, 1902, she and her lover from childhood, J. Earl McLean, were wedded, and for more than sixteen years she enjoyed all the delights of an ideal home and all the pleasure that a devoted and ever thoughtful husband could supply.

She was the mother of four children, only one of whom, Willard, is alive. All the wealth of a nature that was supremely motherly she lavished on the only child that was left her, and he above all others, has suffered a loss that can never be estimated.

She departed this life on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, August 4th, 1919, aged 41 years, six months and 22 days. This untimely death, while not altogether unexpected, came with paralyzing force to her husband, son, parents, sisters, brothers and unnumbered friends. She had been in failing health for some months when she went to Rockhill Sanatorium and bravely began the fight for life and health; but the combination of diseases were too strong for her feeble powers, however great her fortitude, and so the battle was lost. Her husband and son, her parents and sisters Iva and Myrtle, were with her when "Her bark put out to sea." We know that she safely passed the bar and is anchored in the harbor of rest, but Oh! there is much less cheer for those that remain since she sailed away.

Corda Louise was reared in a Christian home and at an early age became a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and has always lived a beautifully serene Christian life. She was intimately acquainted with Him who is the Shepherd of the souls of men and we know that He, always faithful to keep His promises, was with her as the shadows lengthened and guided her into the perpetual day.

Corda Louise was a rare character. Selfishness was omitted from the ingredients that entered into the formation of her life. To forego a desired pleasure to add to another's happiness brought her intense delight. She abounded in good works and a large number have been helped in many ways through her kindness. All her ministrations were so unostentatious that the immediate members of her family were scarcely conscious of her many kindly deeds. This quality of her life became intensified after the death of her little daughter Marjorie. From then on, she had little use for frivolities and devoted her frail strength to lightening the burdens of others.

She was in every sense an ideal daughter, wife, mother and friend. She understood the art of home-making and he was indeed fortunate who had the privilege of being her guest. She was always patient, tender, gentle and kindly. The writer spent an hour with her in the Rockhill Sanatorium a few days prior to her death. Fully realizing the seriousness of her physical condition, her whole thoughts were of her husband and son, of father and mother. Such was the winsomeness of her life that she drew all to her and was loved by all who knew her.

We may not know why such lives should end at noonday, we may not even know just where the loved ones who leave us go—

"But this we know. Our loved and dead, if they should come this day, Should come and ask us, 'What is Life?' not one of us could say. Life is a mystery as deep as death can be;

Yet, oh, how sweet it is to us, this life we live and see.

Then might they say, those vanished ones, and blessed be the thought,

So death is sweet to us, beloved, though we may tell you naught;

We may not tell it to the quick, this mystery of death;

Ye cannot tell us, if ye would, the mystery of breath.

The child who enters life comes not with knowledge or intent;

So those who enter death must go as little children sent.

Nothing is known. But I believe that God is overhead.

And as life is sweet to the living, so death is to the dead."

Rev. Ross made a beautiful talk, basing his remarks upon references in the memoir and the privilege he had felt in having an intimate acquaintance in the home. He expressed the sense of loss as very great and only those who had come in and touch with Corda McLean and had their lives enriched by contact with hers, realized how great. The minister in his visits in the home had been deeply impressed by the simple manner, the high ideals, the admirable qualities of this comparatively young woman and especially by her devotion to her husband and son and to her parents.

In closing his remarks Rev. Ross said that while this death may seem untimely from our human view point, yet in its finished work may have covered a wide span.

Rev. Cherrington made the closing prayer.

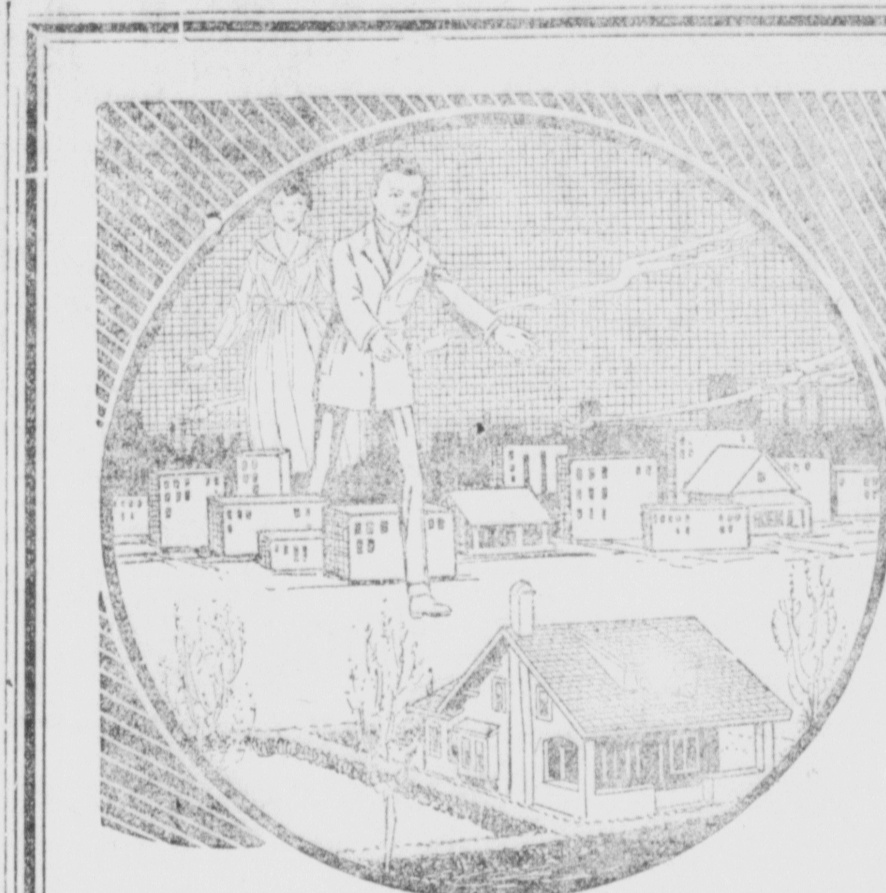

A long line of autos accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the final rites at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. E. Lloyd, D. S. Craig, Henry Brownell, Ed. Fite, Roy T. McClure, Clarence Craig.

The floral offerings were superb, and in such number that it was difficult to transport them to the cemetery.

STATE MILITIA QUELLS RACE RIOTING IN CHICAGO

Troops marching to armories in Chicago for riot duty.

Thanks to the presence in the city of 6,500 militiamen, race war terror and bloodshed have abated in Chicago. There are still sporadic outbreaks of violence, however. As a consequence of Chicago's race war more than thirty persons are known to be dead, while hundreds have been badly hurt. There has also been considerable damage to property.

State militiamen have drawn a cordon about the black belt, within which whites are not permitted to go. The presence of the troops has calmed the negroes' fears and has had a salutary effect on the hoodlums who have been responsible for the riots.

WARNING ISSUED ON DUMPING REFUSE

Service Director Tracey has issued a warning to persons who have been dumping refuse, such as grass clippings from lawns, or anything else that comes under the general head of refuse, into the gutter of the paved

With the cleaning of streets by ced, have started the practice of throwing refuse into the gutters so that it would be removed by the street cleaner.

As such action is a direct violation of law, it will not be tolerated, it is announced, and if necessary the ordinance covering the offense will be invoked to put an end to the practice.

WASHINGTON HIGH FOOTBALL TEAM CAN TREAT 'EM ROUGH

It is reported in High School circles that prospects for a foot ball team for the coming season are unusually bright.

With the return to school last spring of several star players who had served in the A. E. F. and with the experience gained by the second string players it is thought that Washington High will be able to put an eleven on the field which will be able to class with the best gridiron outfits in this section.

Although a coach has not been definitely selected at the present time the man under consideration to take charge of the athletics in the High School has had experience along these lines and has the added distinction of having served overseas.

Weaver, the former center and who returned to school last spring after receiving his discharge from the service will be back on the line, Conner, another A. E. F. and a former lineman will be back, it is understood.

Howard Burnett, who returned recently after a year in France, is considering re-entering school. Two years ago Burnett played the best game at tackle of any man on the team. It is understood that one or two other men who have returned to school are thinking seriously of going out for the team.

At any rate it will be a husky bunch of pigskin chasers who don the Blue and White and the team who meets against a tough proposition.

the fact that the alleys of the city that this is done, arrests may be made where such harmful refuse is consign-

TREE IS FULL OF PEARS AND BLOOM

On the Lou Phillips property on East street, this city, may be seen at the present time, a pear tree that has almost full sized pears upon it and at the same time is putting forth a second burst of bloom.

Several instances were reported last spring wherein pear trees with fruit as large as hickorynuts had clusters of blossoms on the new growth of the tree.

WILMINGTONIAN HAS REAL HUNCH

"It's just plain dope," said one of the local baseball players to a reporter this morning, "but I have a hint that we are going to have some pretty stiff competition in the Athletics when they come here Sunday."

The Washington C. H. Athletics play here Sunday afternoon, and just what the result will be is uncertain, for Wilmington players are willing to admit that the Fayette Countians are the heaviest hitters they have been up against this season. However, they are hopeful that they may continue their winning streak and are as confident as any players ought to be.

Attention Shifts

It is really amazing, when we stop long enough to consider it, how quickly the public attention can shift, or be shifted, by "intensive" news publication, from the contemplation of one important problem to another.

The American people have not only learned to concentrate all of their attention upon one problem, but they have learned to shift that intense contemplation almost instantly to another problem.

Only a few days ago the American people were giving the peace treaty and the league of nations proposal their undivided attention.

The news columns were filled with reports of the doings and sayings of senators and politicians, concerning the peace treaty and the league of nations.

Now all news and editorial mention of the treaty and the league proposal is omitted.

People have shifted their attention to the cost of living problem. Officials have begun their campaigns to lower prices of the necessities of life.

That great subject is given columns in the papers while the all-important matter of news, only a few days ago, is disposed of in a few short paragraphs.

Why? Well that's the biggest problem right now. It demands an early solution while the others can wait. That problem affects all of us directly—our homes and our families.

The first move toward forcing down prices brought instant recognition by the press of the nation.

The newspapers are quick to feel the demand of the public for news. Publishers know what people want to read about—about what they are anxious to know the facts—and they are quick to meet that demand whenever the action of public servants warrants it.

Propaganda? Yes, in a way it is, but it is the propaganda of the people for the people on subjects of vital concern.

The American people want action on the most important of problems. They want to learn about the questions which puzzle them and the newspapers give them everything available.

"Crip"

The little three-legged dog—for several years a familiar bit of life on the streets of Washington—is dead. The end was rather tragic too. It came while the little outcast was asleep under an automobile. Seeking relief from the hot sun he had chosen the shade under an automobile as the best place to take one of his afternoon naps. The owner of the automobile started up, not knowing that "Crip" was sound asleep with his head under the wheel. Death was swift and painless.

"Crip" was just a dog—a yellow dog, too, if one looked only to the color of his coat, but underneath that yellow coat in his little body beat a heart as true as steel. Unfortunate in the loss of one hind leg the little fellow lived as the community dog, much more cheerfully than many of his more fortunate canine brothers.

Everybody loved "Crip." The community bought him a collar, paid the dog license for him and paid his taxes. He was square with the world when death came.

"Crip" was a quality dog. Nature had garbed him out of keeping with his heart, his disposition and his manners and then misfortune overtook him, but those things never daunted the courage of the little waif. Through it all he maintained his quiet dignity and his cheerful disposition. Himself not familiar in his greetings he didn't court familiarity from others, either men or dogs.

We wonder what becomes of dogs like him after they die. Crip's life and death make us think that there must be a dog heaven somewhere.

Automobiles

Automobiles are one of our greatest joys and the source of some of our gravest worries.

The automobile has become a fixed institution in the life of the people. It is necessary for our pleasure, our recreation and our business. We must accept its coming as a fixture with humanity. The automobile affords a swift and comfortable means of traveling about, but it has its dangers which must be guarded against. Rather some people who drive automobiles are dangerous and must be watched and regulated. Careful driving must be enforced. We have provided enough laws but we need more enforcement. Reckless drivers jeopardize their own and the lives of their neighbors.

The automobile too has made and is making tremendous demands on the supply of labor, skilled and unskilled. They have come so fast, the demand created for labor has been so tremendous that most anybody could get a job as mechanic in a factory or garage to the cost and suffering of the public.

Now they are building machines so much better that the decreasing demand for "repairs" will soon result in better and fewer men being employed in the garages.

We all hope, now that the automobile has established its permanent place, we have passed the crest of worry and annoyance and that conditions will soon readjust themselves to the change.

POETRY FOR TODAY

GARDEN.

O Painter of the fruits and flowers,
We own Thy wise design.
Whereby these human hands of ours
May share the work of Thine!

Apart from Thee we plant in vain
The root and sow the seed;
Thy early and Thy later rain
Thy sun and dew we need.

Our toil is sweet with thankfulness,
Our burden is our boon;
The curse of Earth's gray morning is
The blessing of its noon.

Why search the wide world everywhere
For Eden's unknown ground?
That garden of the primal pair
May nevermore be found.

But, blest by Thee, our patient toil
May right the ancient wrong,
And give to every clime and soil
The beauty lost so long.

Our honest flowers and fruited trees
May Eden's orchard shame;
We taste the tempting sweets of these Like Eve, without her blame.

And North and South, and East and West,
The pride of every zone,
The fairest, rarest, and the best
May all be made our own.

Its earliest shrine the young world sought
In hill-groves and in bowers.
The fittest offerings thither brought Were Thy own fruits and flowers.

And still with reverent hands we cull
Thy gifts each year renewed;
The good is always beautiful,
The beautiful is good.

—Whittier.

BRITISH ANTHEM IS REVISED FOR PEACE CEREMONIES

(By Associated Press)

London, July 10.—(By Mail)—With the approval of King George the British national anthem was revised for the period of the peace celebration so as to include certain sentiments that will appeal to the entire Empire. The revised anthem, as sung in the thanksgiving service at St Paul's, retains the first stanza of the time honored hymn, but the next two are replaced by the following:

"One realm of races four,
Blest more and evermore,
God save our land,
Home of the brave and free,
Set in the silver sea,
True nurse of chivalry
God save our land.

God save us all,
Bid strife and hatred cease,
Bid hope and joy increase,
Spread universal peace
God save us all.

ILLNESS UPSET HIS NERVES AND MADE ARM NUMB

H. L. Martin Tells How Nerv-Worth Did What Doctors Couldn't Do.

This was a serious case. It looked very bad for that arm. But that was before Mr. Martin banked on the power of Nerv-Worth. Afterwards—but let Mr. Martin tell the story as he did a short time ago to his Zanesville Ohio, druggist:
Zimmer's Drug Store—I met with an accident some time ago which left me in a very nervous condition all over. I tried different doctors and could get no relief. They all said I would probably be troubled all my life.

I read where Nerv-Worth had been helping so many people and decided to try it. The first bottle made me feel better and after taking three bottles THE NUMBNESS WAS ALL GONE from my arm and I felt as good as I ever did. I surely recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone suffering from nervous troubles.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Creath Reunion held at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker north of Bloomingburg Thursday, brought together fifty relatives.

The occasion honored the two senior members of the family, Mrs. Abbie Clarage and Mrs. Hannah Gardner of Mt. Sterling, and was the first gathering of this kind held in many years by the Creath family.

Relatives from Springfield, Urbana, Columbus, London and Catawba joined with those in this community in making the day a memorable one in the family history.

An elaborate picnic spread was served at the noon hour.

Seated in a circle on the lawn the informal talks, on suffrage, by Mrs. D. S. Craig, and on the new Health Bill and its possibilities, by Mrs. George Hitchcock were much enjoyed.

Following the talks a lively round table discussion was participated in by every woman present. Spice was added to the occasion by the fact that some of the guests and even the hostesses themselves had not been enthusiastic for suffrage until they heard the arguments of Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Hitchcock.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by their pretty young niece, Miss Helen Rhoads.

The White Oak Grove Ladies Aid Society convened in their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. E. Elwood of the Staunton pike.

SALE OF ANCIENT EGGS IS CHARGED IN AFFIDAVIT FILED

Sale of three dozen bad eggs is the charge filed against Carl Miller, of Jeffersonville, by State Food Inspector E. F. Van Dyke, who recently made an inspection trip through this county.

The affidavit filed by Van Dyke, a copy of which has been forwarded to County Prosecutor Harry M. Rankin with instructions to represent the State in the action when it is heard before Mayor U. G. Creamer of Jeffersonville, August 12th, at two o'clock, charges the accused with selling three dozen eggs to J. Holzen, on July 25th, and that the eggs were wholly or in part "diseased, decomposed, putrid, infected, tainted or rotten substance," contrary to law.

The action is said to be the first of its kind in Fayette county and the result of the case will be watched with interest by thousands of buyers and sellers of eggs.

FINAL SESSION OF ANNUAL MEETING FAYETTE TEACHERS

County Superintendent of schools Oliver S. Nelson reports that the Fayette County Teachers' Institute which came to a close Friday afternoon after having been in session during the week, was one of the most successful that has been held.

Friday's program was the busiest of the week. Four lectures of the highest type were delivered by the instructors and the election of officers for the coming year was held.

Superintendent Edmund for his final lecture chose the topic "Vocational Education." This is a topic which is receiving much attention at the present time and is of special interest to those engaged in teaching.

"The School and Morals" furnished material for a live talk by Professor Martin, the Professor of Philosophy of Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa.

The afternoon topics were "The Relation of the Teacher to Her Constituency" by Superintendent Edmund and "The New Democracy and the School," delivered by Professor Martin.

It is reported that 58 teachers were enrolled during the convention.

The attendance during the week was excellent and the hearty support of the teachers' was readily given.

Another Good Farm

Now that many persons have the money with which to purchase a farm and the desire to buy, we are going to tell you about a good one that we have just listed for sale. Listen:—

150 acres, in Ross County, north of Greenfield, lays level, all on one side of good road, substantial 5-room house, good barn, silo, good fences and well ditched. Wheat yield this year 20 bushels per acre; corn crop promises 60 bushels or more; there being 40 acres in corn and 40 acres for corn next year; crops have been regularly rotated; splendid hay crop and pasture unsurpassed.

We made a personal visit to this farm this week and we vouch for the correctness of the above statements. To be brief, we regard this as the greatest money-making farm for the price we know of anywhere. Let us show it to you. Price $70 per acre, one-half cash, balance in one and two years.

IS FOUND GUILTY
OF NON-SUPPORT

John Daily, after trial lasting part of three day, late Thursday afternoon was found guilty of non-support of his minor children, an offense which carries with it a maximum penalty of $1,000 fine and one year in prison.

The case was filed by Humane Officer G. C. Gooderl, and attracted widespread attention. The jury in the case took just long enough to cast one ballot, and returned a verdict of guilty. The court reserved sentence until later.

Prosecutor Harry M. Rankin brought out in the case the fact that Daily, by his own admissions, has government bonds, realty and personal property to the amount of nearly $14,000, and the testimony is said to have indicated that members of the accused's family were not accustomed to an abundance of proper food and that the housing conditions were poor.

One witness testified to finding Luther Daily, a son, in such a weakened condition for lack of proper food, that it was necessary to carry him to a restaurant and buy him something to eat. This boy frequently slept out in the open in preference to his home, according to witnesses.

Daily was represented by Gregg, Patton and Gregg. It is understood a motion for a new trial will be filed.

(By Associated Press.)
Des Moines, August 8.—Pat Ryan, a newsboy, has returned to his old corner after an absence of many months overseas. He wears the Croix de Guerre.

"How did I get it? Oh, the big chief gave me some papers to deliver to another fellow," he said. The records show that Corporal Ryan, Company B, 168th Infantry, went deliberately through German barbed wire and machine gun fire to deliver important orders and that his conduct was an inspiration to his comrades.

Ryan also introduced American newspaper enterprise in Paris where in a single day he sold 120,000 copies of the Stars and Stripes.

Then he was made Paris circulation manager of the paper. Now Pat is back at his old corner here.

prices and rents and the whole cost of living higher and yet higher in a logical or natural end."

"Some of the methods by which these prices are produced are already illegal, some of them criminal and those who employ them will be energically proceeded against; but others have not yet been brought under the law and should be dealt with at once by legislation."

Demands for increases of wages accompanying the rising costs of living, the President said, "were justified if there be no other means of enabling men to live."

"While there is any possibility that the peace terms may be changed," said the President referring to his plea for early ratification of the treaty so that the country may be turned back from a war basis, "or may be held long in abeyance or may not be enforced because of divisions of opinion among the powers associated against Germany, it is idle to look for permanent relief."

Surplus stocks of food and clothing in the hands of the government, the President said, would be sold and hoards of food in private hands would be forced out under the existing provisions of the food control law.

Dealers eager to reap a harvest of rising prices who had disadvantages as well as the danger of holding off from the new process of distribution."

The normal operation of the law of supply and demand, the President said, had been set at naught in the cases of many necessary commodities. He cited the figures of the federal trade commission showing rising prices in the face of greater stocks of food than were on hand in the country a year ago.

The pending bill to regulate security issues, the President referred to as a measure which would "do much to stop speculation and to prevent the fraudulent methods of promotion by which our people are annually fleeced of many millions of hard-earned money."

Besides asking for the remedies he proposed the President called on Congress and the public to deal with the subject deliberately. He appealed to merchants and others to deal fairly with the people

NEW CONCERN TO DEVELOP TRADE

(By Associated Press)
London, July 14.—(By Mail)—Organization of The Levant Company with a capital $5,000,000 for developing trade between Great Britain and the near eastern countries has been announced here.

The American Chamber of Commerce in London compares this company to the $20,000,000 American Foreign Trade Corporation, organized to develop American trade in the near East and which is establishing headquarters in Constantinople, Smyrna, Syria and on the Black Sea and suggests that interesting competition will result.

There are provinces in China that have not as yet heard of the world war. We'll bet "Count" Hohenzollern wishes he had been born there.

Old Friends Are Best—So Are Old Songs

And the Old Home Singers Will Make Friends of Everybody by Singing the Songs that Everybody Likes Best

Memory takes us back to cherished scenes. Nothing awakens memory so pleasantly as the singing of old songs, songs of our old home that were hummed at our work—they are so much more than just music to us. The programs of the Old Home Singers, coming to Chautauqua to supply the music on the opening day, are journeys into the Days of Yesterday. Five young artists have been chosen, who, in voice and manner, are especially suited to sing and present the program. The singers form a mixed quartet capable of superb ensemble singing. That this will prove one of the most pleasing musical programs of the series is assured us by those who are in position to know.

A Big Circus to Be Put on by the Youngsters

The Chautauqua Kids Circus—The Biggest Hit Ever Invented—For All the Boys and Girls

A brand new and novel form of entertainment is to be introduced at Chautauqua this summer for the benefit of the young folks, popularly spoken of nowadays as "the kiddies."

The Chautauqua management has decided to assist the Junior Chautauquans (children from six to fourteen who have purchased a Junior season ticket) in putting on a real circus. What boy or girl hasn't played circus at some time—here will be an opportunity to do it on a large scale and with the whole community taking part or acting as audience. The circus will include a menagerie of wild animals, various side-show features, and circus stunts of many kinds and varieties.

It will be no end of fun to learn how to build an elephant that looks like the real thing. One that can walk about on the grass and take an active part in the circus performance. Another animal that will be built by the kiddies is the long necked ostrich and it will be taught to perform many interesting and funny tricks. Other animals to be built by the Juniors are the giraffe and the "Gook." Besides there'll be the tattooed men, wild men, snake charmers, fortune tellers, Hawaiian beauties, clowns, bands, and many other features. The kiddies will have the time of their lives and so will the grown folks who will be invited to come and see this wonderful circus, parade and all.

HEADS TRIO OF FINE ARTISTS TO GIVE TWO CONCERTS AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

Charles Edward Clarke, who heads The Charles Edward Clarke Company, to be heard at the Chautauqua, is one of those musicians who, while he has rare ability to interpret good music, has not been afflicted with what is commonly called "the artistic temperament." In addition to being a good singer, Mr. Clarke is a good human being. He likes folks, and he likes to mingle with them. From his first appearance upon the platform, he instantly strings the wires between himself and his hearers. Folks feel instinctively that here is a man who is using music as a vehicle for the expression of fine personality, of high ideals, and of splendid purpose. He sings his way into the hearts of his hearers with the first note, and he never fails to hold their appreciation and interest to the close of the program. His accompanying artists include his talented wife, Rachel Steinman Clarke, one of the best known violinists of the Chautauqua platform, and Mr. Earl Victor Prahl, a most competent pianist.

A Fordson Tractor Easily Wins Against Large Field

Eight thousand farmers and a large representation of dealers and manufacturers saw a Fordson Tractor finish an easy first against twenty-seven other tractors at a big competitive demonstration at Fostoria Wednesday.

The Fostoria meeting, because of the large competition entered and the nature of the tests, aroused a tremendous interest and proved larger than the National Meeting at Wichita.

The efficiency of the Fordson—the superiority of its performance—made for this tractor thousands of new admirers and many sales were made on the field following the demonstration.

This triumph has but a single meaning to every thinking farmer—and that is that he can't afford to buy any tractor without at least investigating the Champion of them all.

FARM NOTES

Lamb is Lamb in New Zealand. "The butchers in our country cut up twenty lambs or sheep to each beef carcass, although cattle are raised in large numbers," said a prominent New Zealand business man the other day in Chicago. The butchers in this country probably do not cut up one lamb carcass to twenty beefs.

The New Zealander further remarked that "a common complaint against lamb is, that it has an objectionable taste, but such prejudice can be usually traced to goat or buck meat in lamb's clothing." In our country you can buy lamb by cable and be absolutely sure of the quality of the stuff you are getting. This is due to the double inspection in force and enforced."

The National Wool Growers' Association of America is endeavoring to secure a strict classification of lamb in this country so that lamb would be lamb.

A Limestone Country

Is a Rich Country.

Notable examples of limestone soils are furnished by the Blue Grass regions of Kentucky and the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Western Ohio soils are more fertile than those of eastern Ohio largely because they were of limestone origin. Such soils when virgin are characterized by an abundance of phosphates and carbonates of lime. By the systematic applications of these materials it is possible not only to retain the virgin condition of limestone soils but also to give a limestone nature to those of less favorable origin.

Neither manure nor fertilizer can take the place of limestone. Rather limestone supplements these materials and produces its best effects on land to which they have been applied. On acid soils it is needed now, on others there is the alternative either of now beginning the moderate use of limestone to prevent acidity or later when acidity has developed of applying it in greatly increased amounts, says Professor J. F. Barker of the Ohio State University.

FINAL THRESHING RUSH UNDER WAY

Fayette county farmers who have been delayed in threshing their wheat and oats by the wet weather and the excessive amount of straw which made threshing very slow this year, are now making a final drive to get their wheat threshed with out any further delay.

Some of the wheat that was down and badly tangled in the sheaf is showing a large percentage of damaged wheat, but the average wheat shows little damage.

Virtually every machine in the county is now engaged in the final clean-up, and if weather permits, there will be very little wheat left in the shock by Saturday night.

MANY INJURED BY EXPLOSIVES

(By Associated Press)

Jerusalem, July 4.—(By Mail)—

Many children are injured each day in Palestine by shells and explosives which were scattered throughout the country during the open warfare between the Turks and the Allies. The battlefields cover such a large area that careful salvaging has been impossible, and the result is that children, farmers, or peasant women are mangled almost every day by accidental explosions.

A large number of the cases treated in the American Red Cross surgical hospital here have been bomb or abdominal cases according to the physician in charge. The hospital was operated for seven months, treating a total of 668 patients, in the various clinics and dispensaries operated by the Red Cross in connection with the hospital. 24,000 men, 46,000 women and 70,000 children were treated in eleven months' time. The hospital has now been turned over to the city Health Department.
